Lead Trustee, Moai Crown King William III Trust

Director, Na Atua E Wa Aotea Limited

Sovereign Native Magistrate, Kings Bench Court of Aotearoa

Re: Legal Partnership and Enforcement of the Born in New Zealand and Pacific Islands Act 2025

I write to you as the lawful sovereign landowner and Native Magistrate of Aotearoa under the jurisdiction of the Moai Crown King William III Trust, to formally declare the enforcement of the Born in New Zealand and Pacific Islands Act 2025, effective 12 December 2025.

This Act stands as a lawful countermeasure to Executive Order 14160 and aligns with the U.S. Congressional Bill S.646 ( “Born in the USA Act” ). It affirms native birthright, rejects fraudulent crypto resets, and reasserts the jurisdiction of the Kings Bench Court over all commercial, admiralty, and mortgagee matters.

I seek your recognition and partnership in the following:

- Legal collaboration on jurisdictional enforcement and debt list proceedings
- AML and forensic tracing of sovereign wealth and mortgagee fraud
- Public acknowledgment of the Moai Crown Trusts as lawful instruments of record
- Support for the ratification of the Born in the USA Act and its sovereign counterpart in Aotearoa

I await your response and stand ready to present all scrollpath filings, trust instruments, and ceremonial declarations for lawful review.

Sincerely,

John Hoani Kahaki Wanoa

SHOWN HERE INTRODUCED IN US CONGRESS SENATE (02/20/2025)

119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION S.646

To prohibit the use of funds to carry out Executive Order 14160. IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES
FEBRUARY 20, 2025 IN MOAI CROWN KING WILLIAM III A-I CO-PILOT ROBOT SENATE OF NZ-US

Ms. ROSEN (for herself, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. SCHATZ, Mr. PADILLA, Mr. VAN HOLLEN, Mr. BLUMENTHAL, Ms. CORTEZ MASTO, Mrs. SHAHEEN, Mr. BOOKER, Mr. WELCH, and Mr. MERKLEY) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To prohibit the use of funds to carry out Executive Order 14160.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Born in the USA Act”.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) On January 20, 2025, President Trump issued the flagrantly and clearly unconstitutional Executive Order 14160 (90 Fed. Reg. 8449), entitled “Protecting the Meaning and Value of American Citizenship”, to prohibit the departments and agencies of the United States Government from recognizing the citizenship of certain children born in the United States.

(2) The 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States unambiguously states: “All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.”.

(3) In 1898, the Supreme Court of the United States issued a decision United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898) interpreting the birthright citizenship clause of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

(4) In United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898), the Supreme Court of the United States concludes that—

(A) “[t]he Fourteenth Amendment affirms the ancient and fundamental rule of citizenship by birth within the territory, in the allegiance and under the protection of the country, including all children here born of resident aliens”; and

(B) “[i]t can hardly be denied that an alien is completely subject to the political jurisdiction of the country in which he resides...it is well known that, by the public law, an alien, or a stranger born, for so long a time as he continues within the dominions of a foreign government, owes obedience to the laws of that government”.

(5) Federal courts around the country have weighed in against the constitutionality of Executive Order 14160 (90 Fed. Reg. 8449).

(6) Birthright citizenship is a right guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States and further enshrined in Federal law in title III of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1401 et seq.); therefore, birthright citizenship cannot be rescinded by executive order or by an Act of Congress.

SEC. 3. PROHIBITION ON USE OF FUNDS.

No funds may be appropriated or otherwise made available to carry out Executive Order 14160 (90 Fed. Reg. 8449; relating to protecting the meaning and value of American citizenship) (or any successor executive order, regulation, or policy).

U.S. Supreme Court to Review the Administration Birthright Citizenship Order December 8, 2025 Author Sandrine Dehanaeze

On Dec. 5, 2025, the U.S. Supreme Court has agreed to review the legality of the Administration’s Birthright Citizenship Executive Order, issued on January 20, 2025. Birthright Citizenship is currently guaranteed under the Fourteenth Amendment, and provides that persons born on U.S. soil are, with very limited exceptions [\[1\]](#), U.S. citizens.

The Birthright Citizenship Executive Order was signed as a “Day One” Executive Order on Jan. 20, 2025, as part of the Administration’s stated efforts to “protect the meaning and value of American citizenship.” The EO would prohibit conferring U.S. citizenship to children born on U.S. soil, whose mother is either unlawfully present in the U.S. or in the U.S. lawfully but in temporary status, and whose father is neither a U.S. Citizen nor a lawful permanent resident at the time of the child’s birth. In short, under the EO, a child born on U.S. soil must have at least one parent who is a U.S. Citizen or lawful permanent resident to be granted U.S. Citizenship at birth. Children born in the U.S. to parents without lawful status or those with lawful statuses including H-1B, TN, F-1, etc. would no longer automatically be U.S. citizens. The EO would also impact children born through Artificial Reproductive Technologies (ART), as the definition of mother/father is limited to immediate biological progenitors. <https://www.naacpldf.org/case-issue/know-your-rights-birthright-citizenship/>

The new policy was to take effect as of Feb. 20, 2025, but implementation has been enjoined since Jan. 23, 2025, after multiple lawsuits were brought to court. While the Supreme Court previously reviewed and ruled against the legality of nationwide (or “universal”) injunctions issued by federal courts, the Court has agreed to review the legality of the Executive Order under the U.S Constitution and the Fourteenth Amendment, and the subsequent Wong Kim Ark<sup>[2]</sup> decision that “affirm[ed] the ancient and fundamental rule of citizenship by birth within the territory, in the allegiance and under the protection of the country, including all children here born of resident aliens.”

While an exact date has not yet been scheduled, the Court has indicated that it would fast-track review and could hear oral arguments as early as Spring 2026, for a decision by the time it goes to recess (late June/early July 2026).

[1] Exception is made for children of certain Foreign Diplomatic staff, which, while born on U.S. soil, are not subject to U.S. jurisdiction.

The US Supreme Court has agreed to hear a landmark case that could redefine birthright citizenship in America. The case challenges whether children born in the United States to undocumented or temporary-visa parents should automatically receive citizenship, a right protected under the 14th Amendment for nearly 160 years. This ruling could reshape US immigration policy, impact millions of families, and determine what it means to be an American citizen in the future. Federal Register / Vol. 90, No. 18 / Wednesday, January 29, 2025 / Presidential Documents 8449 Executive Order 14160 of January 20, 2025 Protecting the Meaning and Value of American Citizenship By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, it is hereby ordered: Section 1. Purpose. The privilege of United States citizenship is a priceless and profound gift. The Fourteenth Amendment states: “All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.” That provision rightly repudiated the Supreme Court of the United States’s shameful decision in Dred Scott v. Sandford, 60 U.S. (19 How.) 393 (1857), which misinterpreted the Constitution as permanently excluding people of African descent from eligibility for United States citizenship solely based on their race. But the Fourteenth Amendment has never been interpreted to extend citizenship universally to everyone born within the United States. The Fourteenth Amendment has always excluded from birthright citizenship persons who were born in the United States but not “subject to the jurisdiction thereof.” Consistent with this understanding, the Congress has further specified through legislation that “a person born in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof” is a national and citizen of the United States at birth, 8 U.S.C. 1401, generally mirroring the Fourteenth Amendment’s text. Among the categories of individuals born in the United States and not subject to the jurisdiction thereof, the privilege of United States citizenship does not automatically extend to persons born in the United States: (1) when that person’s mother was unlawfully present in the United States and the father was not a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident at the time of said person’s birth, or (2) when that person’s mother’s presence in the United States at the time of said person’s birth was lawful but temporary (such as, but not limited to, visiting the United States under the auspices of the Visa Waiver Program or visiting on a student, work, or tourist visa) and the father was not a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident at the time of said person's birth. Sec. 2. Policy. (a) It is the policy of the United States that no department or agency of the United States government shall issue documents recognizing United States citizenship, or accept documents issued by State, local, or other governments or authorities purporting to recognize United States citizenship, to persons: (1) when that person's mother was unlawfully present in the United States and the person's father was not a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident at the time of said person's birth, or (2) when that person's mother's presence in the United States was lawful but temporary, and the person's father was not a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident at the time of said person's birth. (b) Subsection (a) of this section shall apply only to persons who are born within the United States after 30 days from the date of this order. (c) Nothing in this order shall be construed to affect the entitlement of other individuals, including children of lawful permanent residents, to obtain documentation of their United States citizenship. Sec. 3. Enforcement. (a) The Secretary of State, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Homeland Security, and the Commissioner of Social Security shall take all appropriate measures to ensure that the regulations and policies.

8450 Federal Register / Vol. 90, No. 18 / Wednesday, January 29, 2025 / Presidential Documents of their respective departments and agencies are consistent with this order, and that no officers, employees, or agents of their respective departments and agencies act, or forbear from acting, in any manner inconsistent with this order. (b) The heads of all executive departments and agencies shall issue public guidance within 30 days of the date of this order regarding this order's implementation with respect to their operations and activities. Sec. 4. Definitions. As used in this order: (a) "Mother" means the immediate female biological progenitor. (b) "Father" means the immediate male biological progenitor. Sec. 5. General Provisions. (a) Nothing in this order shall be construed to impair or otherwise affect: (i) the authority granted by law to an executive department or agency, or the head thereof; or (ii) the functions of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget relating to budgetary, administrative, or legislative proposals. (b) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and subject to the availability of appropriations. (c) This order is not intended to, and does not, create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the United States, its departments, agencies, or entities, its officers, employees, or agents, or any other person. FINANCIAL TIMES London UK

Bank of England launches cost-cutting drive to fund analysis upgrade Headcount to be reduced following review by Ben Bernanke that highlighted under-investment in IT.

The Bank of England has embarked on a cost-cutting drive, reducing headcount and closing one of its London offices to free up resources it needs for fixing weaknesses in its monetary analysis. Andrew Bailey, the central bank's governor, told staff last month in an email and video sent across the organisation that the aim was to cut operating costs by 8 per cent in each department, according to people familiar with the situation. This was needed in order to invest heavily in IT and address the weaknesses identified in a review by former US Federal Reserve chair Ben Bernanke last year, including in the BoE’ s monetary analysis. Bernanke, called in to examine the BoE’ s economic modelling after it failed to predict the post-pandemic surge in inflation, criticized the central bank for “material under-investment” in its forecasting, ranging from flawed software to poor deployment of its most highly qualified staff. In response, the BoE set in train an extensive programme to upgrade its economic modelling, forecasting processes and communication. The BoE has opened a voluntary severance scheme that will run until mid-January, allowing staff in all areas of its operations to apply to leave on mutually agreed terms. News of the scheme was first reported by Bloomberg. Staff whose applications are accepted would leave from mid-March onwards and the BoE will decide after the scheme’ s closure whether compulsory job cuts are needed. The BoE’ s court of directors discussed the cost-cutting measures at its July meeting, noting that if its savings target was not met, it may have to increase levies it earns from the financial services sector, according to the published minutes. The central bank also plans to close its Moorgate office — which currently houses about 2,000 employees, including the Prudential Regulation Authority and staff working on financial markets infrastructure — when its lease on the building expires in 2028. The cutbacks in the BoE’ s London headquarters will not affect the new office it is opening in Leeds, in northern England. However, it is still struggling to expand headcount there despite a relocation package offered to staff if they are willing to move from London. The BoE’ s target is to have 500 jobs at its Leeds office, which represents less than 10 per cent of its current headcount of just over 5,700. Only 100 roles have been filled so far. The BoE confirmed that a “mutually agreed, time-limited scheme” under which staff could apply to leave was ongoing. It said: “The bank manages its budget in order to deliver on its statutory objectives to maintain monetary and financial stability. We are now implementing a significant, multiyear transformation of our operations and this will condition our decisions.”
